

Terms and Conditions for Personal Training and Client-Trainer Agreement

My participation in any exercise programme with my personal trainer is voluntary. The information I have provided is accurate to the best of my knowledge.

Sessions are designed to progress you towards your fitness and exercise goals and will be progressive in nature based on your improving levels of fitness.

- I agree to give 24 hours notice for cancellation of sessions. I understand that if 24 hours' notice is not given, the fee for that session will still stand.
- I understand that if I receive credit for a missed session, the credit must be used within 14 days of the missed session or it will be waived.
- I understand that payments are non-refundable and cannot be cancelled or transferred. However, sessions may be suspended at the discretion of the Trainer for a maximum of 12 months from the start date.
- I understand that the PAR-Q, Doctors Approval (if applicable) and this Personal Training Agreement must be completed and signed prior to the first session.
- I understand that payment must be made in advance of the first session. Failure to make payment will result in the cancellation of the personal training programme.
- I understand that the results achieved from personal training are a combination of exercise, nutrition and my own personal genetics. The trainer will guide me but cannot be fully responsible for the results I achieve.
- I understand that if I am late for a session, the session time may be cut short and the full fee will still apply.
- I understand that rates for Personal Training are subject to change and reviewed annually. Prepaid sessions that are unused at the time of a rate change will be honoured at the prepaid price.
- I understand that there are different payment options for Personal Training. A payment plan will be agreed at point of sale.
- I understand that if the PT session has been shared, the session will remain at full price even if my training partner has cancelled in advance.
- I understand that exercise involves certain risks, including but not limited to; serious neck and spinal injuries resulting in complete or partial paralysis, heart attack, stroke or even death. Additionally, injuries could occur to bones, joints or muscles. Slips, falls, and unintended loss of balance could result in muscular, neurological, orthopaedic or other bodily injury.
- I understand that I have control of the workout and may terminate a particular exercise or workout at any time. Further to this I understand that it is my obligation to inform my trainer of any symptoms such as fatigue, shortness of breath or chest discomfort.
- I agree that the trainer can terminate a particular exercise or workout at any time if the trainer believes I am not in suitable condition for exercise.
- I understand that my Personal Trainer is not a doctor, physiotherapist or dietician and that the advice offered is optional and not a replacement for professional advice from experts within specialist fields.

The Trainer:
